

On Tuesday 8th July, you will receive information about your child's new class for September and information about transition arrangements. a week in advance of our transition days on 15th and 16th July.

Transition 2025

You will receive:

- Names of child's new teacher and support staff team.
- "Get to know you" info about your child's teacher.
- A map showing where your child's new classroom is.
- Timings and locations for transition events.
- An invitation to meet your child's new teacher.

Parents of children with SEND

You will receive extra information in addition to this to help prepare your child for the upcoming changes in advance.

This will include:

- *Photos of the classroom
- *Information about lunchtimes/playtimes.
- *An overview of the types of provision in place to support learners with SEND.

Double click this Newsround link for top tips for transition!

The children will spend time in their new classes on the afternoon of Tuesday 15th July and the morning of Wednesday 16th July.

During these times, they will get to know the new routines, reflecting on their successes this year and looking ahead to their new class.

The children do not need to bring anything with them other than their normal water bottle and packed lunch (if needed).

What do children need to do?

Arrive at school on time.

Have a positive mindset.

Enjoy getting to know their new teacher and routines!

What do parents need to do?

On Tuesday 15th July:

- *Drop your child off at their normal classroom at 8:35am.
- *Collect your child from their new classroom at 3:10pm.
- *At 3:10pm, come in and meet your child's new teacher!

We would love to see you call in and get to know what is coming up!

On Wednesday 16th July:

- *Take your child to their new classroom at 8:35am.

This will help you get used to dropping your child off in their new classroom. The children will spend the morning in their new classes practising routines and getting used to things ahead of the exciting plans for September!

You will collect your child from their normal classroom at the end of the day on Wednesday 16th July.