	I can randomly scribble on the page, sometimes with both hands. I can begin to balance when sitting. I can make connections between my actions and the marks being made. I can hold mark making equipment using the palmer grip. I can control the marks on the page. I can distinguish between the different marks I make.	I can draw lines and circles in the air, on the floor or on large sheets of paper, balancing well and using whole arm and body. I can use tools for mark making with control. I can grip using five fingers or preferably two fingers and a thumb for control. I can use pincers, tweezers and threading equipment with increasing control and confidence. I can copy shapes, letters and pictures.
	After 2 term in F1	After 2 term in F2
	I can turn pages in a book. I can control equipment like a jug and show increasing control over tools like pencils and crayons. I can use a range of tools to make marks and show an interest my own marks and others' marks	I can sit on a chair with a straight back and my feet on the floor. I can control finer tools when playing with dough. I can form recognisable letters, some of them correctly. I can use a tripod grasp
	After 3 term in F1	After 3 term in F2
	I can draw lines and circles in the air, on the floor or on large sheets of paper, balancing well and using whole arm and body. I can use tools for mark making with control. I can grip using five fingers or preferably two fingers and a thumb for control. I can use pincers, tweezers and threading equipment with increasing control and confidence. I can copy shapes, letters and pictures.	I can use my phonic knowledge to write words in ways which match my spoken sounds. I can write simple sentences which can be read by myself and others. I can handle tools and equipment effectively, including pencils for writing.

	Sit correctly at a table, holding a pencil comfortably and correctly	Form lower-case letters of the correct size relative to one another	Use the diagonal and horizontal strokes that are needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined	Write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed
	Begin to form lower-case letters in the correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place	Start using some of the diagonal and horizontal strokes needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined	Increase the legibility, consistency and quality of their handwriting [for example, by ensuring that the downstrokes of letters are parallel and equidistant; that lines of writing are spaced sufficiently so that the ascenders and descenders of letters do not touch].	Choosing which shape of a letter to use when given choices and deciding whether or not to join specific letters

	Form capital letters	Write capital letters and digits of the correct size, orientation and relationship to one another and to lower case letters		Choosing the writing implement that is best suited for a task
	Form digits 0-9	Use spacing between words that reflects the size of the letters.
	Understand which letters belong to which handwriting 'families' and to practise these.

Composition

	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3 and 4	Year 5 and 6
Composition	saying out loud what they are going to write about	writing narratives about personal experiences and those of others (real and fictional)	Discussing writing similar to that which they are planning to write in order to understand and learn from its structure, vocabulary and grammar	Identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own
	Orally compose sentences before writing	writing about real events	Discussing and recording ideas	Note and develop initial ideas, drawing on reading & research where necessary
	sequencing sentences to form short narratives	writing for different purposes	Composing/ rehearsing sentences orally (including dialogue), progressively building a varied & rich vocabulary and an increasing range of sentence structures (English Appendix 2)	In writing narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings in what pupils have read, listened to or seen performed
	re-reading what they have written to check that it makes sense	Planning or saying out loud what they are going to write about	Organising paragraphs around a theme	Selecting appropriate grammar and vocabulary, understanding how such choices can change and enhance meaning
	discuss what they have written with the teacher or other pupils	Writing down ideas and/or key words, including new vocabulary	In narratives, creating settings, characters and plot	In narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action
	Read aloud their writing clearly enough to be heard by their peers and the teacher.	Make simple additions, revisions & corrections to their own writing including proof-reading for GPS errors.	In non-narrative material, using simple organisational devices [for example, headings and sub-headings]	Précising longer passages
		Evaluating their writing with the teacher and other pupils	Assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing and suggesting improvements	Read aloud what they have written with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear.
		Re-reading to check that their writing makes sense and that verbs to indicate time are used correctly and consistently	Proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve consistency, including the accurate use of pronouns in sentences	Using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs Using further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader [for example, headings, bullet points, underlining]
		Read aloud what they have written with appropriate intonation making meaning clear.	Proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors	Assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing
			Read aloud their own writing, to a group or the whole class, using appropriate intonation and controlling the tone and volume so that the meaning is clear.	Proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning
